“ We are missing Addie already. She was such a big part of your life, and you both have become such close friends of ours. In time we will sit, talk and remember. For now, know that we are here whenever you need friends.

"When you need someone, reach out to me, 'cause that's what I'm there for. And when you need something more, reach out to the Master, 'cause that's what HE'S there for..."

You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ You have been such a positive influence to my wife, Sarah, throughout the years. Even though I have only had the honor of meeting you a couple of times, your smile and humor will be greatly missed.

“ Dennis still knows that Addie made the best chili of anyone. We always remember how happy she was to see us even if she was tired and then she proceeded to treat us like royalty. We learned many life lessons from her.
