

Adeline Imdieke

August 12, 1925 - January 4, 2012

Adeline Imdieke was born on August 12, 1925 in Browerville, MN to Nicholas and Mathilda (Brus) Koppes. She grew up on a farm by Browerville. She was united in marriage to Alphonse Imdieke on November 14, 1950. Adeline was a homemaker and mother in the early days. She worked at the Commercial Hotel in Wadena, babysat for many families, and cleaned at St. Ann's. In her later years she became a Minnesota Twins fan, and loved flowers, gardening, bird-watching, going for walks, visiting on the phone, and caring for her cats. She especially loved being with her family. She was a member of the Foresters, VFW Auxiliary, and Christian Mothers. Adeline's survivors include her four children Dennis (Pat) of rural Wadena, Gerald (Linda) of New York Mills, Mary (Ed) Walker of Independence, KY, and Margie of Shakopee; seven grandchildren & four great-grandchildren; sisters Laura Browning of Bloomington, Sally (Milo) Moll of Prior Lake; and sister-in-law Alma Imdieke. Preceding her in death were her husband Alphonse; parents Nicholas and Mathilda; brother Rudy Koppes; and sister Leona Schultzenberg. The Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated on Saturday, January 7, 2011, at 2:00 p.m. at St. Ann's Catholic Church in Wadena, with Father Donald Wagner as celebrant. Pallbearers were Duane Imdieke, Augie Imdieke, Bryan Imdieke, Kim Imdieke, Traci Keskitalo and Staci Imdieke. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery in Wadena.

“ Back in the 1970s I got to know Adeline when she attended our grass roots local Council on Disability meetings and social get togethers. She always had a smile and a sweet way of getting to know the other people there. I really liked her.

“ Hi Grandma, I think about you and miss you every day. I will cherish all my memories I have of you, forever. Your birthday is coming up, and mom and I will be going to the Twins game that day, lets hope they win for you. You and grandpa are in heaven together, I know you are both my angels watching over me. Love you so much, Staci
