“ We got to know Adeline and her husband while attending our grandsons' basketball games for BBE over the past several years. The things I remember most are what faithful supporters and fans they were, and how at every game they attended, Gary's boys, Michael and David, would always find their grandparents in the crowd and would give them a big hug! I imagine that she and Edward really appreciated that gesture.

We send our sympathy to Edward and Adeline's family.
