“ I have not had the chance to visit with her very often during the past years but will always remember how good she was to us when we were children. She is home now.

“ I had the opportunity to spend time with Anna occassionally in the past ouple of years. Our conversations were always interesting and an indication of her broad interests and fine intelligence. I looked forward to time with her. I admired her kindness, her faith and her personal strength. I am sure these were gifts she shared with many.
