“ I remember both Anna Mae and Arnold, we had our children at the same time and sat together during church services at St. Paul's, where at that time, all parents with little children were placed in the back pews of the church, so as not to be a disturbance to the other worshipers. I pray that the family will find comfort in knowing that Anna Mae is now at rest and reunited with her loved ones who have gone before and with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
