“ Art was a wonderful friend and neighbor. He worked on many carpenter projects for us.
He was an easy going man, whenever he couldn't come up with a fast solution, his favorite expression was, "Come on Art,"
RIP ART

“ I first got to know Art when he came to visit his wife at the nursing home. After she passed away, he continued to come there and just visit and watch TV with the residents, usually on Friday when he could attend Mass there also. Later after his accident, he was a resident there himself and I would visit him. He was a gentle man and so interesting to talk with. I feel blessed to have had the opportunity to know him.
