

Barry Luedtke

October 12, 1957 - October 9, 2017

Friends and family may gather at the graveside service for Barry Luedtke, of Henning, to be held at 11:30 a.m. on Friday, October 13, at the Oak Valley Cemetery near Hewitt, with Pastors Jesse Koljonen and Karl Foley presiding. Three days before his 60th birthday, Barry passed away unexpectedly on October 9, 2017, in Henning, MN.

Barry Alan Luedtke was born to Donald and Maxine (Donahoe) Luedtke on October 12, 1957, in Fenton, Iowa. He grew up in Parkers Prairie, MN, where he completed high school. He continued his education and became a welder in the manufacturing industry. On November 2, 1979, Barry married Patricia Ann Barnes in Douglas County. They made their home in Parkers Prairie with their seven children. By 1999, they moved to Princeton until 2007 when his daughter Tanya and her family welcomed Barry into their Henning home where he resided until the time of his death. Barry enjoyed time away from work when fishing, hunting and listening to country music. Most of all, he loved being with his family.

Barry was preceded in death by his wife Patricia on October 27, 2006; and his parents Don and Maxine.

He is survived by his children Vance (Michelle) Luedtke of CA; Jodie (Mark) Bringardner of St. Paul, Jackie (Jesse) Ashbaugh of Verndale, Judy (Mark) Lamb of Bertha, Joy (Roger) Rasmussen of Henning, Tina (Mike) Shatteck of Cambridge and Tanya (Jeff) Kline of Henning; 21 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren; brother Brian Luedtke; along with sisters Patricia (Don) Gordon and LuAnne Chambers.

Casketbearers will be Christian Lamb, Tyler Lamb, Jerry Lamb, Hunter Lamb, Brett Kline and AJ Ashbaugh.
