“ My favorite memory of Carol was watching her and Dean dancing! It truly amazed me how they just flowed with each other. And Eva still has the porcelain unicorn you gave to her. She keeps it in her "special" box. She was so young but still remembers who she got it from! We love you Carol. Rest in peace.

Love,
Amanda, Travis, Eva and Olivia Davis

“ Carol was a very special friend I met via US snail mail in 1995 after I retired from The University of TN with 30 years service. We exchanged quilt fabric and blocks and became very close friends. Dean and Carol traveled often to East TN to visit and would go to our very favorite vacation spot, Isle of Palms SC, with us on vacation. Carol loved Civil War history and we had so very much in common. She loved to make beautiful quilts and I do also. I have a quilt guild, THE CRAFTY QUILTERS, and she would be my guest when she came to the hills of Tennessee. We always took them to DOLLYWOOD and to a dinner show in Pigeon Forge when they visited. We traveled to Vegas and they showed us around Vegas three different times. I remember them taking this little old country hillbilly to tour a high class brothel in Vegas. NEW EXPERIENCE for me. :) WONDERFUL SPECIAL PEOPLE AND I REALLY MISS CAROL. Doris Blair and Melvin Patty from the hills of Tennessee

“ The fact that her husband took such loving care of her during this trying time, says a lot to the kind of loving person she was. You receive what you put out. Aunt Carol was a loving, kind person. She was always a wealth of information, and reminds me of grandma, in the way she was always so honest about things. Talking to her was always an adventure as she always had something interesting to say. She will be missed, and I am sure she is dancing around heaven, glad to be free of her illness and I know she will be by Uncle Pete's side in spirit. Love you Aunt Carol.
