“ I got called into work today and was so saddened to hear Carol had passed away. Your Mom and I worked together at the hospital and I remember her frustations when the cows would get out and she'd call to say she would be delayed. I used to buy garden vegetables from your parents and I remember visiting with your grandmother. I know Carol was getting weaker so I didn't visit with her during this stay. My condolences to you--she is at PEACE.
