“ As a youngster without a father, I spent many summers on the farm in Eagle Bend.

Although the whole Johnson family always made me feel welcome and wanted, it was Clifford who always looked after me and took care of me. I worked as best I could along side of him, I shopped with him, fished with him, visited neighbors, went to town, went to the County and the State fairs. We even stripped to our skivvies and went swimming.

I don't remember Clifford saying a bad word about anyone. Even when he talked about someone who had stolen from them, he talked about the deed, and not the person.

I can't think of anyone who could have been a better role model. He was loved, and will be missed, but he will not be forgotten.

“ I have memories of visiting Clifford at the farm in Eagle Bend. I remember him being a gentle and soft spoken person. He was very kind and patient. He will be missed.
