Hi, we knew Cora through her daughter Bev. Knew the whole family. Loved them all. Loved Cora so much. My deasead Sister (Rox) ,and (Mother Trix) did love her as well. We always called her Ma. She did always have the coffee pot on,and if she knew you were coming, always has her delicious caramel rolls ready too. She,and my Mom, loved to play bingo,while waiting for us girls to go shopping, and we all loved the craft sales during opening day of hunting. Followed by going out for pizza. We had lots of visiting time in Sauk Centre, too. She will be deeply missed, along with Clarence, Duane, and Allan. Such a wonderful family. ❤️
Our Sympathy, and Love, to Lois, Gary, and Family, Bev, Tim , and Family. 💔😭

“ To Cora’s family, I have many memories of your mom from going to school and seeing her as one of the lunch ladies and of course all the coffee parties she and the other Tuesday ladies had. She was a wonderful lady and I’m sure she is in heaven planning and baking something for tomorrow morning for Tuesday coffee with my mom and some of the other coffee club that were there to greet her.

“ I just viewed the funeral service at Immanuel Lutheran Church online and it was so heartwarming. The memories that the grandchildren mentioned were so cute. She was a good woman and great friend of my m,om Lorraine Gallagher for many years. That Tuesday Coffee Group was awesome. Now they can start it up again. Most of the group is up there already. Thinking of you, Steffens family. Judy Gallagher Mora OKC, OK.

“ The Vierkant family would like to offer our sincere condolences on the loss of your mom Cora. Our mom Myrtle and Cora were best of friends. They spent hours on the phone planning there next outing or the next coffee party. They were there for each other when they needed help or assistance with any issue one might be having. They drove each other all over town to make appointments, volunteering and dining. Myrtle sends her prayers and will not be able to attend the funeral service do to heath reasons. She said she will see her another day and they will have a big coffee party. God Bless everyone and many prayers your mom was a very special person
