“ As many have expressed, we are sad to hear of Craig's passing. I remember him as a quiet, persistent classmate. He was a hard worker, and at class reunions, he was proud of what he did. Your family will be in my prayers and I pray that God will give His peace in the loss of someone too young to die. I personally know this will be a difficult time for you.

“ When I think of Craig, I think of BHHS football. The coaches didn't often put Craig in any games, but they had to admire and respect Craig's work ethic and commitment to the sport. He never complained, he attended every practice, and he was suited up every August ready to go again. And if the coaches didn't notice, I know I did.

My thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends.
