“ Dan was a wonderful human being. He loved his family. I am honored to have been both his friend and his cousin. May God bless his memory. To Gerry and Raydean, my prayer is that God's comfort is healing the pain of this incredible loss.

“Brother Dan, such a shock to know you are gone. God came for you I know and it was time to complete your journey. The past few days have been hard without you. Knowing the home place is empty after 50 years of our family living there, doesn't really seem like it's possible. Carole and I and the kids loved you. I hope you always knew that. You had an incredible impact on our lives. Thank you for being there for us. We will all miss you. You enjoyed astronomy, aviation, books, NASA, travel, coins, reading, history, archeology, the oceans, animals and plants of the world and therefore zoos and gardens. Your family were your friends, cousins, nephews, nieces, grand nephews and grand niece. You were concerned about all humanity and the future of the world. We will all work to keep everything for you to observe as time unfolds from your place in the balcony of heaven. When our time is done meet us at the gate, open it for us, we will step inside, and let us close it and step inside with you. Rest and live at peace in your eternal home in the city our Heavenly Father has prepared for you.

love always, Jerry

“ Coming back to the USA from Africa, we would pay a visit to Dan and his family...Mother and Father in Bertha. It was always such fun to be with Danny, Ray Dean and Jerry out on the farm. Dan was a special person and a great debater. He had a beautiful mind. He is at rest now. We are praying for Ray Dean and for Jerry and their families.

“ One of my earliest memories of cousin Dan was when he was about 6 years old at a family reunion. He came racing down a hill toward the campfire with his hot dog on a stick. In his excitement, he mixed his intended "Here I come to roast my weiner!" and shouted out, "Here I come to weist my roaner!" I also remember Dan's love of reading and knowledge, how he introduced my son Tom to Tolkien and "The Hobbit" when he was in third grade, how he would sometimes call me in Florida to have me look up some space exploration info on the internet. And then there was the time his love of fishing brought him to visit us in southern California back in the 70's. I believe we buried a small dog shark that he caught in our backyard. Although we spent most of our lives a thousand or more miles apart, I will miss cousin Dan and our occasional long distance phone visits. - Kathy Gaumitz Brown

“ Dan was a classmate since fourth grade. I'll always remember him reading the encyclopedias in class in his spare time. We hadn't talked in years, but this past year we had two occasions to visit and as always he left me thinking about his wise words of wisdom. Thanks for the memories. Heaven is welcoming a faithful servant.
