

Daniel Stave

February 20, 1960 - December 15, 2022

The memorial graveside service for Daniel Stave of Deer Creek will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 20 at Trinity Lutheran Cemetery in Deer Creek. Following the burial, an open house celebrating his life will held at his home until 4:00 p.m. in rural Deer Creek.

Dan, age 62, passed away with his wife Betty at his side, on December 15, 2022, at his home in rural Deer Creek, MN, and under the gentle care of Knute Nelson Hospice.

Daniel Wayne Stave, known to many as Danny, was born to Kessell and Barbara (Tjaden) Stave on February 20, 1960 in Wadena, MN. After completing high school at Deer Creek in 1978, he went on to trade school and then worked in the Offutt potato warehouse. Dan served with the National Guard for a number of years. Leisure hours were filled with his love for hunting. Dan enjoyed watching NASCAR and helping friends build cars for driving in demolition derbies. In his later years, Dan became disabled and was confined to his home.

On November 30, 2022, Danny married his life companion, Betty J. Weinreis at their home in rural Deer Creek.

Preceding Dan in death were his parents, Kessell and Barbara; and sister,

Debra Henry. Remembering Danny will be his wife Betty; brother-in-law, Bob Henry, and nephew, Jason Henry both of Iowa.

Honorary urn bearers will be Jason MacMillian, Mike Steinbesser, Keith Echhoff and Zach Snyder.

Serving as urn bearers will be Mike Menze and Derek Christenson.

Burial will be at a later date in Trinity Lutheran Cemetery, Deer Creek, MN.
