

Daniel "Danny" Lorentz

July 28, 1951 - November 13, 2012

The Mass of Christian Burial for Daniel "Danny" Lorentz will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, November 16, at St. Ann's Catholic Church in Wadena with Father Timothy Wenzel as celebrant. Friends may call at St. Ann's Parish Center on Thursday, from 4:00 to 8:00 PM, with Parish Prayers at 7:00 and Rosary to follow. Visitation will resume at the church on Friday from 9:30 AM until the time of Mass.

Daniel Raymond Lorentz was born in Bertha on July 28, 1951 to Michael and Elizabeth (Carkhuff) Lorentz and graduated from Eagle Bend High School in 1969.

Danny, as most friends referred to him as, enjoyed spending time with his family and grandchildren, giving back to others, playing practical jokes on others, hunting elk and fishing for anything he could catch. He enjoyed giving his time to help others and was involved in many local service organizations including multiple Lions Clubs, starting the youth Leo's Club, was a Knights of Columbus Grand Knight and also was a long-time member of the Wadena Elks Club. One of his most important and treasured activities was spending quality time with his loving, devoted and beautiful wife of 41 years, Patricia Jane (Neuerburg) Lorentz.

With his loving family nearby, Danny peacefully lost his long and hard battle with cancer in his home at 1:15 a.m. on Tuesday, November 13, 2012. Welcoming him into heaven was his parents, his brother Louis, an unborn son and his granddaughter, Jane Fiemeyer, along with many friends and family who arrived before him. With an unlimited amount of playtime in heaven, he will likely sneak in a lot of fishing with many angels young and old alike.

Danny is survived by his loving and devoted wife Pat (Neuerburg) Lorentz, of Wadena, along with his children: Jil Fiemeyer, Darin "Diggy"(Carla) Lorentz, Missy Lorentz, Julie (John) Cook and Lee "Ivan" Lorentz; Grandchildren: KatieRae and Anna Fiemeyer; Kaylee Ova and Drew, Arynn and Danielle "Dani" Lorentz; and Ryan Cook; Siblings: George Lorentz, Joe (Sue) Lorentz, Michelle (Charlie) Deblieck, Pat Kirikiti, Becky (John) Walker, Brad Lorentz and Gabe Lorentz. He also leaves behind a "boat load" of family and friends who laughed beside him often.

Pallbearers will be Jeff Viste, Kyle Gylsen, Joe Silvers, Steve Lorentz, Laurel Einerwold, and Bert Olson.

Burial will be in Wadena Cemetery.

“ Danny: You were the best example of unconditional love to your soul mate, Pat, your family, and your friends. If someone new was in the crowd you were the first to make them feel welcome. We will miss you and can not wait to fish and play a game of cards with you again. Our sympathy and prayers are with you Pat and the family.

“ My love goes to the Lorentz family. Pat, you have been a saint to a wonderful man. What love he had for his family. I have been in Dan's life ever since the very day he was born as his Mother was proud he was my birthday present, and that made a special gift to me. I got to see the Lorentz family quite often even though they lived far away. Dan and Pat got rest in my home with loads of love.

I will miss Dan on his birthday but in my heart I will never forget him.

Love to all, Marlys Lehmann Walker

“ Dan has taught me to do what is right and what others say, let go. He fought a tough battle but he kept moving forward and hoping for a win.

Dan's laugh, good talk, jokes and advice will be missed. He thought of others so much.

I will miss you Dan. You have so many folks to be with up in Heaven. It may be awhile before you miss us here on earth.

I will be using your jigs next summer. I still need a large fish to make the board.
