“ When I think of Uncle Darrel all I can think of is what a sweet man he was. He loved to tease and make us laugh. He was a loving, caring, compassionate man and I know he will be missed by many. Darrel was the last of my Mom's (Ardys) siblings. My regret is that I always lived so far away that I did not get to spend enough time with him and his family and of course, all the other relatives in Minnesota.

What we can know is that Darrel is now with our Lord and that is amazing to only imagine!

I am sending my love and prayers to all the family and friends. Blessings always. Mary Ann Kern/Seattle
