“ Even though we weren't in your life as long as a lot of people, we were blessed knowing you and how you welcomed our daughter Stacie into your family. We all became family and we couldn't of asked for better in-laws!!! We had some good times with all the projects Doug and you worked on. I will never forget the time we went to the cabin and we did some target shooting and you let me shoot that huge hand gun, not sure what the hell it was but man did it have a kick!!! Your smile and sense of humor was always an uplift. We will cherish the time we were lucky to have you in our lives, you will be missed by so many. You were robbed of life to early but our memories will keep you close within our hearts. Rest in Peace Darrold, someday we will meet again!

“ I had the privilege of working with Darrold for many years. He was a knowledgeable arborist, and a skilled power lineman. Always had a smile on his face, always willing to serve the membership, day or night, regardless of weather conditions. I hope Darrold 's family has many happy memories to reflect on, and that tears will soon transition to smiles as they remember the good times.
Sincere sympathy and best wishes,
