“ *My dear Ruth and family,
Losing a wonderful husband, dad and grandpa is a very difficult thing to do - it takes a lot of faith - and I know you all have that. God bless the memory of your David - I'll just bet he is sharing his wisdom and humor with those gathered around the big table. Everyone there will rejoice at his arrival. Just know you are in my heart and in my prayers, especially these next few days. My love, always, Jeri*

“ Dear Ruth and Family;

David was so nice and special. I so enjoyed the time that I was fortunate enough to spend with all of you when I was young. I still think of David when I eat apple pie although I don't remember the whole story!

I know that you meant a lot to Mom and Dad also. The memories of 4-H, Faith Lutheran activities and playing at the farm come back to me often.

May your happy memories of David lighten the pain of your grief. He will be with you always.

In God's Love,

LeAnn
