“ I am just so saddened by hearing about DeAnna. She truly was a kind, kind person. We had many little conversations when she would be working at the church while I was there doing what I do. We'd just catch up on different things going on in our lives, or just a plain old visit. She was a very caring person and I will miss seeing her at the church.

So sorry to hear about Deanna, she was one of the best friends that I have ever had. I will miss seeing her at Walmart. We used to have many good talks at the Uptown in Wadena. You will be missed my good friend. Helen

I am so sorry to hear Dee passed away. I know she went through a lot in life. The last chat I had with her she wanted to go. She had had enough. The LORD heard her, and she has her eternal reward. Praise the LORD. She will be missed by all who knew her. There will be a big empty hole in everyone's lives. God grant you all peace and comfort knowing she is not suffering anymore.. God's blessings. Alice Schoon
