“ Dennis was a classmate and friend. It was so good to see him at our 50th reunion (the first he had attended). He enjoyed himself and was so happy he had come. He was a kind and gentle soul. I am sorry I had not heard about his passing until the end of the day of his funeral. I would have been there. Condolences to the family. Rest in Peace. Thanks for serving our Country.

“ Condolences to Dennis family! I thought I would share a few of my personal memories of Dennis. I knew him my whole childhood he was my neighbor down the road. I remember when I was younger driving the mini motorcycle up and down the driveway and Dennis was heading over to share some beer with my dad stopped me on the driveway, he got out of his truck bent over and looked me in the eye tapping my helmet and said, "Dont you ever let me catch you without this helmet I don't want to hear about your brains getting splattered on the road!" Important lesson!! Then as I grew we were invited to Dennis birthday party and he was sneaking the kids "root BEER" told me this is kids beer when your older we will give you the stuff without the root in it. He told my dad one time wow that girl of yours is going to have the boys lined up down the drive way waiting to date her--(boy was I disappointed when they didn't!--haha!) Dennis would haul manure daily and his faithful dog Freckles would follow him rain snow heat it didn't matter where Dennis drove that tractor Freckles was there. When I got in my teens my dad and I took over milking for Dennis. Dennis loved to play jokes on me--I was and am VERY afraid of snakes so Dennis knew my chore route on the farm, so he would lay dead snakes in my path then sit and wait--pretend he was mowing or fixing the mower waiting to hear me squeal and jump so high in the sky. Then he would go tell my dad and brothers how he got me good! Still can see him laughing. Then working with my dad who is a little OCD about keeping things neat gets out the weed wacker to take down the "weeds". Boy never seen Dennis move so fast to stop dad from chopping down his HOLLYHOCKS...I now have my own patch of hollyhocks that I planted in that memory that have bloomed this week. Then came the time for Dennis to move off the farm and I was to move into his house his words- "the cat and the dog come with the house, though I have never even touched the cat, good luck." I could go on with memories and the impact Dennis had on my life. He was a very kind person who was gentle with animals and loved his flowers. Thanks for the smiles and kind words Dennis- can't say I miss the snake pranks!! ❤️ Tamara Roberts (Tammy Richter).

“ The many times we found Dennis and dad either sitting on the rock pile or leaning on the machine one of them was working on and just talking. The later years remembered playing many games of cards with him. He will be greatly missed. Illa (Packard) and Arnold Roth Jr. and family

Dennis was super nice guy and a big part of the Humphrey Manor family. Now he doesn't have to wait for the sports section of the newspaper like he did every day. He'll have his own front row seat to all the games he wants. Rest in Peace Dennis, we will miss you.
