“ Just wanted the family to know how sorry I am to learn about your mother. I still remember the times we were over to the house and how friendly your mom was to all the kids. She didn't seem to care how many there was, everyone was always welcome. Just wanted to let you all know I am thinking about you in this sad time.

God Bless

“ Grandma, I will never forget your sweet words; the smile that you gave when we walked in your door; making cookies with you (with a few extra chocolate chips on the top); the visits; the sleepovers at your house; ALL the card games that we played; the list could go on, but most of all your love that you gave to each person that you knew. We love you and you will be missed.

“ We were so sorry to hear about your loss. I remember Dorothy always smiling and I loved talking with her. I'll never forget being invited to her house for Christmas Eve when I first moved here. I bet Santa never saw so many presents! Lots of love was in that home. For those of you who liked the sugar cookies I used to make for the bank that were so delicious....Dorothy's recipe.
