

Elliot Jares

June 14, 2017 - March 18, 2021

The celebration of life funeral service for Elliot Jares will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, March 24, 2021 at the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Bartlett with Pastor Robin Fish presiding.

A visitation will be held on Tuesday at the Domian-Anderson Chapel in Bertha from 5:00 - 8:00 p.m. and will continue at the church on Wednesday from 9:30 a.m. until the time of service.

Jesus welcomed Elliot into his arms on March 18, 2021 after an unfortunate farming accident.

Elliot was born to Jason and Amy (Hoemberg) Jares on June 14, 2017 in Staples, MN. He loved to sing "Jesus Loves Me" in church. He loved to color with markers and crayons, play in the dirt with his Tonka trucks and shooting Nerf guns at toy targets. He really liked treats and beef jerky.

Elliot was a mischievous little boy but enjoyed being read to and would sit down to watch HOP, Bigfoot, Bigfoot Family and Green Eggs and Ham. He mostly loved watching Bonanza reruns with his family. Elliot loved spending time with his grandparents on the farm, where he helped with chores and loved playing with the barn cats.

He loved tractor rides and playing in the mud! He loved petting the baby calves and looked forward to Ranger rides and chasing deer. He enjoyed building forts with his dad and brothers. Elliot was fond of his cousins too. One of the fondest memories is when, his dad would put lotion on his hands, Elliot also had to put lotion on and it ended up everywhere! White all over his cheeks and clothes!

Elliot was preceded in death by great-grandparents, Helen Jares, Kenneth Greenwaldt, Matt & Pearl Hoemberg, Robert & Ethel Williams; great-aunts & uncles, Sue & Jack Friedli, Karen & Herb Hopp, Larry & Chi Hoemberg, Sharon Hoemberg, and John Putz.

Memories of Elliot will be treasured by his parents Jason and Amy ; siblings, Dalton, Calvin and Ryleigh; grandparents, Tony & Jan Jares and Jim & Birdie Hoemberg; uncles, Travis Jares, Nick (Carrie) Jares, Todd (Heather) Hoemberg, Jason (Cheetah) Hoemberg, and Josh (Kim) Hoemberg; cousins, Dylan, Evan, Wyatt, & Cody Jares, Haley, Isaac, Autumn, Jordan, & Amelia Hoemberg, along with a multitude of great-aunts and uncles, close family and friends.

Honorary pallbearers will be Dylan Jares, Evan Jares, Wyatt Jares, and Cody Jares.

Serving as pallbearers will be Travis Jares, Nick Jares, Todd Hoemberg, Jason Hoemberg, and Josh Hoemberg.

Burial will be in Immanuel Lutheran Cemetery, Bartlett MN.

To my sweet little baby boy Elliot. I miss you so much and is so hard to not have you with me. Deer hunting just started and I took Calvin with me and Grandpa took Dalton. I wish you were here so I could have taken you also. You were so young and touched my heart as you always wanted to help daddy with the farm. I think of you everyday and would love to hold you again. One of these days, I hope to get a big hug from my little guy. Sure not the same with out you. We are all struggling with you in heaven already and the rest of us still here on earth. Just know your Daddy loves you with all my heart and misses you more then anything. Love you Elliot.

To my son, Elliot who I miss so very much. This seasons deer hunting has come and gone. Your mother, Dalton, Calvin, Ryleigh and I built a big deer stand this year for the whole family to sit in. It has windows and a door and is insulated so nobody would get cold. Its big enough for your brothers and sister to lay on the floor and take a nap or color with markers in their coloring books while mom and dad sit and watch for those deer. It got late building it and we only got it done 4 days before hunting started. Took it up to the 80 and saw only a doe the first weekend. We weaned the calves after the first weekend of hunting so mom didn't have to listen to them ball while she was trying to hunt. Your brothers did a very good job helping to sort the calves from the cows and are getting better at not being so afraid of them. I really watch them close when we are out by the cows now that your in heaven. I guess alot of things have changed since you went there. Im more worried that I might not be able to protect them or keep them from getting hurt like I did with you. I know it was an accident but I still feel it was my fault cause my job as your daddy was to protect and love you. So now God will protect you and I will always love you. This never gets any easier as I am just a big mess trying to type this letter to you. My eyes havent stopped running with tears as I miss you so much. Its hard for me to keep it together when ever I see your picture as my heart always hurt and wants to be with you. Guess I will have to wait till God takes me home to be with you to hold you again. Just wanted you to know your family misses you so much and the hole in our hearts will never be filled. Love you Elliot.

“ Elliot - I can't believe it's five years already that you've been able to enjoy heaven. Your mom showed me a video your teacher sent her when you were going to preschool. You were such a sweetheart. Everytime I go in the vet room and get something off the shelves I think of you and Calvin helping Grandpa make them. You would take turns laying on them to make sure they were just the right size. Miss you so much but everyday that passes makes it one closer when I will get to see you again. Love and miss you. Grandma.

You've had your 4th heavenly birthday in heaven. More in heaven than here on earth. So hard to believe. There's another little boy that came to heaven a few months ago. I sent his parents a letter because reading about him reminded us so much of you. I told them about the dream I had about you coming down on the deck by me and telling me you were "playing and having fun". Also, about the time Calvin told me in Sunday School that now you could see the nail marks in Jesus' hands. I told them that Rudy took Jesus' hand when he held it out, just like you did and that you gladly went with him. Now you're both where we all want to go ... to be with our Savior in heaven. I also said I was sure that you and Rudy were "playing and having fun" in heaven together and we'll see you again when Jesus calls us home. Miss you and love you.

“ My dear little tough guy how much I miss you. I still tear up when I visit this page and feel with a heavy heart that I am not able to have you in our family life right now. Hard to wrap my head around that today marks 4 years since I was last able to hold you. The sting never goes away from that day. Just got done with Bible study at church tonight and you were on everyone's mind. A lot of people miss you very much. Mom bought uncle Sid's cows last fall and the first one had a calf the other day. Rained 2" over night and then snowed 4" so the calf came into the house to get warm and dried off. Both your brothers are in wrestling and are getting ready to go to aunt Darla's this weekend. Need to finish in top 6 to make it to state so we will have to see how it goes. They don't have the rough and tough like you did but they sure can hold their own. Would have loved to have been able to see all 3 of you wrestle together. Our cows should start around the 1st of April. Dalton and Calvin are both starting to drive tractor and skid loader more and they are able to help haul the hay off the fields at home. They still have some trouble catching those calves sometimes when we have to tag and band them. They sure try hard and do a good job. Sometimes when the cow gets to close to us, they tend to pay more attention to her then what they are doing. Can make for some interesting times. Spring will be here soon and then its time for things to really get moving. I'm glad your in heaven with God and can't wait till the day when he brings our family back together. Love and miss you so much son, always will. Love Dad

*Today would be your 7th birthday here on earth. Dalton called me to ask me if I remembered what day it was. I tried sending a note on your heavenly birthday but it disappeared and then I wasn't sure if it had gone or not. Guess not, because I never saw it but I figured you would know I sent it anyway. It's always amazing how time just keeps marching on whether we want it to or not. Think of you and miss you daily. You now have a new little sister, Kennedy. Would be wonderful to see you again. “ Elliot - Today is your 2nd heavenly birthday. We knew from the minute you left this earth that you were with Jesus in heaven and as happy as we are for you, it's so difficult not having you here. That is why I'm so grateful for God sending me a dream so you could tell me you were there. In my dream, I was mowing the lawn and had stopped to pick up some branches from the tree that you loved to climb. As I was picking them up, I heard this giggle and laugh which sounded exactly like you. I turned around to see you on my lawn mower which I knew couldn't be true because even in my dream, you had already gone to heaven. I looked around to see who could have come that had a little boy that looked just like you but no one was there but us. The next instant we were standing on our deck together. All of a sudden a wind picked up and big fluffy clouds started rolling across the sky. You looked up at those clouds and said, "I'm playing. Having fun". Then I woke up. You only said those four words to me but I knew it was a comfort from God. Love you and miss you every day. Grandma

“ We don't know you but saw this in the news. What a tragic accident. Our hearts & prayers go out to all of you. It was 29 yrs ago that our little 5 yr old, Josh , died of liver cancer. Your mind goes through many memories, hurt and sadness. Lean on God since He will be your True strength. When you wake up in the morning and just want to pull the covers over and hide.....He will wrap His loving arms around you & lift you up to go on for the day. Time will go on, but never feel like you can't mention his name or a memory. That is how we heal. You have 3 other beautiful children who will give you their smiles.

They too will miss their little brother. I wish we could take this pain away for you. May God be with you all at this very hard time in your lives.

“ Elliot, you were a "full-speed - volume 10" kind of boy. There was no "inside" voice on the farm. Anything your brothers were doing, you were going to do, too. How many times did Grandma say, "Elliot, you've got the prettiest eyes" and you would just look at me and give that little grin. We will miss seeing you every day and running for Grandpa as soon as you saw him with a bear hug. There's not room to tell all the things we can see you doing again and again, every time we turn around. From running to the chicken house with the basket to gather eggs and "whoops" one dropped, to chasing to the barn with your brothers to play in the pens. We know Jesus held out his hand and said, "Elliot, come with me" and you gladly went. Knowing you are with Jesus in heaven is the only thing that will help us through this. We love you and can't wait to see you in heaven. Grandpa and Grandma Jares

“ We were so saddened to hear of such a great loss. Our hearts break with you. Losing a child is never easy but God had his reason, Elliot was needed in Heaven. It has been 32 years since our Jamie, age 11 was called home. There will be many times you will feel as though your world is collapsing but know that one day we will be together again. Hold onto your faith. We pray God will give you peace, comfort and strength for the days ahead. Know also that many feel your pain and sorrow. Time they say heals our hearts, that is true to an extent, however, some times you will feel better and then all of a sudden something reminds you of him and it will seem as though it happened yesterday, but this feeling will get less as time passes. Hold onto the memories, share the memories, keep him in your hearts and know you now have an angel in Heaven to watch over all of you. He is truly in the arms of Jesus. You are in our hearts and prayers. Deepest sympathy's. God Bless you all. Jay, Jackie, Jacob and Jayson

“ I want to thank the Jares family for the care and kindness they showed my parents (Russell & Esther) when they were neighbors years ago. Knowing that, I am very assured of the love, caring & kindness they showed their little Elliot during his short life. Human pain can be so deep that it just consumes you, time will help, but just think of the glorious day when you will see him again in the care of Jesus! Prayers for your comfort and healing! Sincerely, Rich & Mavis (Holmquist) Kendall

“ Our sincerest sympathies to all of sweet Elliot's family. He was such an adorable little boy. Bright, curious, sweet and those amazing brown eyes. I will miss my visits and digging in the sticker box looking for just the right handful with him so much. Our hearts are breaking for you all. I know your faith will see you through this awful pain and knowing that he is with Jesus and loved ones that have passed on before him. **hugs** and our love to you!

“ Elliot will live forever in our hearts. Knowing he is with our Heavenly Father eases the pain but will never ease the ache in our hearts. Let our prayers and love be an anchor until peace rests in you.
