“ Lots of memories will keep recurring of my life long acquaintance with Ervin's family, being raised on neighboring dairy farms in the German-Catholic community of Bluffton. My first encounters with Ervin were chopping' corn in the fall and the saw rig crew. Ervin commanded respect from a mentor such as me, by his serious manner of getting alot done without a lot of fuss, serious, but always even tempered and a grin for a young man such as myself. Later when we moved our young family from Montana to start a new ranch of our own, he welcomed us warmly when we encountered him at Mass or the hardware stores where he helped us with advice and info. I bought feeder cattle from him and when he was transitioning out of dairying to beef we traded ideas about that. Thngs came full circle for us as we evolved into a mature relationship, respectful of each other. Our family offers prayers and consolation for family of Ervin and Rita, (Rita's grandma and my grandma are sisters). God's blessings for you!, from Kelly and Susan Roggenkamp at Wing River Livestock, Wadena County.

“ Erwin and Rita were our wonderful friends and neighbors who lived just down the road and up the hill. Always happy to lend a hand in need to everyone. Many times after my Dad passed away and I would come home to Minnesota from Texas to visit, I would stop in to see Erwin and Rita and I would tell them how much I missed my Dad's hugs and Ervin said come here, I have an extra Dad hug for you anytime. My favorite memory that will stay with me forever. Thank you to all your kids for sharing you and your Mom with all of us. Jackie Boylan Smith

“ Ervin, What a kind and thoughtful person you were. Always with a smile and a friendly visit. My best memory of you was in 1954 when dad had surgery and was laid up for a couple of weeks. You came over every day to do the milking and the chores. We were always so excited when you came in the house because we sang songs for you and gave you lots of special attention. Since then, you have always been a favorite of ours. In fact, we were all together last week, and, once again you were part of our memories that we shared. Rest in peace, Ervin.
