Frank was born to Frank and Dorthea (Markfelder) Wolpert on October 14, 1921 in Aldrich, MN. He attended Staples High School, graduating with the Class of 1939. At the age of 19, Frank's father passed away. Being a kind-hearted man, he remained with his mother to assist in the farm operations. Years later the farmland was rented out and Frank helped his neighbors with his knowledge as a handyman and carpenter. He found joy playing Pinochle and visiting with friends at the café. He spent time woodcarving and liked to fish with his neighbor Butch Hopp.

Frank was preceded in death by his parents Frank and Dorthea, and brother Joseph.

He is survived by his nephews Larry (Mag) Wolpert of Staples, Michael (Pam) Wolpert of Aldrich, and Steve (April) Wolpert of Motley and their families, along with several cousins.

Honorary pallbearers will be Frank's nephews.

Burial will be in St. Frederick's Catholic Cemetery, Verndale, MN.

Frank's family is especially appreciative of the care provided by the staff of the Central Todd County Care Center in Clarissa and the Lakewood Hospice in Staples, MN.
