“ So very sad to hear of Frank's passing. Having spent much time at the Yetter household, I got to know Frank and Sarah very well and as Krista Lien pointed out, it truly was "easy to see where Jane got her wild and crazy sense of humor". You had to be a pretty special person to put up with some of the goofballs Janey brought home! Thinking of you all!!

“ So sorry for your loss. I remember spending quite a bit of time at your house back in Jr. High and was always made to feel welcome there. Of course, you could never go into M&Y without seeing Frank smiling. It was easy to see where Jane got her "wild and crazy" sense of humor. My best to you all.

“ To Sarah, Jane, Steve and grandkids. I was working at Rexall Drug in Staples when Frank and Steve came in to meet Frank Gardner. He was looking for relief work and Frank Gardner gave him the job right away. I don't remember what year that was, but it got to be every Mon. and Tue., I got to work with Frank. He made it fun and working in pharmacy is very stressful, but we always had a good time. Although we did fight over the radio station, I had the key to the store and got there first, so we listened to country western until I would leave the pharmacy, and all of a sudden we were listening to public radio. I was a little, well o.k. a lot, depressed on my 50th birthday and was just having a very bad day. When Frank came back from lunch he handed me two red and yellow roses and said, "See, turning 50 isn't all bad." He was such a kind man. He also worked at Longbella Drug every Thursday, and when Frank Gardner decided to close Rexall, I was asked to come to work for Lani and Chad. I said I would if Frank Yetter would work that Monday and Tuesday. He did and we worked together there for 5 more years. He talked so much about how proud he was of his kids and his grandkids and would tell about his and Sarah's visits to Steve and Annie's. He was also a dog lover and we would tell each other about our comical dogs. I will miss you Frank. I love you, RIP my friend. My deepest sympathies to Sarah, Jane, Steve, Annie, Kathryn, and George.
