

Frank Youngbauer

March 10, 1913 - January 31, 2008

Frank Xavier Youngbauer, 94, of Wadena, passed away on January 31, 2008, at Fair Oaks Lodge in Wadena. Frank was born to Frank and Katherine Youngbauer on March 10, 1913, in Wadena. He married Loretta Rohr on October 7, 1940. He lived his entire life in the area, working at the Northern Wool Growers and Peterson-Biddick; farming and raising and selling Christmas trees until 1971, when he and Loretta moved to Wadena. He also worked for the Wadena School district and at the Wadena County Courthouse as a custodian. Frank enjoyed reading, coin collecting, watching the Minnesota Twins and spending time with family and friends. The Mass of Christian Burial was held Monday, February 4, at St. Ann's Catholic Church, in Wadena, with Rev. Donald Wagner as celebrant. Pall Bearers are Rick Youngbauer, Donald Youngbauer, Donald Durkee, Dennis Frank, Gary Rohr and Larry Rohr. Interment was at Calvary Cemetery in Wadena. Survivors include sons, David (Joyce) of Nevis, Michael (Julie) of Eden Prairie, daughters, Patricia Cooney of Wadena, Peggy (Ray) Rentz of Junction City, WI, daughter-in-law Delores Youngbauer of Osseo, 6 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife in 1997; parents; brothers Pete, Hubert, Bernard and Simon; sisters Tracy Evenson, Ann Morrell, Helen Youngbauer, and Martha Frank; son Robert Youngbauer; son-in-law William Cooney; grandsons Bradley Youngbauer, Brian Youngbauer and David Cooney.

Tribute Wall

KK

“ To the Youngbauer family,
I am so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathies on the passing of a very good man. I have fond memories of visiting the Youngbauer family when I worked in Wadena with Frank's daughter Peggy. God bless you.
-Kay

Kay Keskinen - January 31, 2008 at 12:00 AM

JF

“ to the family, my thoughts are with you at this difficult time, may he rest in peace.

joan cooney and family - January 31, 2008 at 12:00 AM