

Gladys Frank) Marsh

Gladys May Stokes was born on November 30, 1909, the only child of Albert and Nellie (Hubbard) Stokes, at their home in Oak Valley Township, MN. She attended country school outside of Hewitt. She was united in marriage with Benjamin (Frank) Marsh on October 20, 1927 in Hewitt. She was a homemaker and lived her entire life in Minnesota. She loved to spend time in her garden tending to her flowers. She enjoyed crocheting and quilting as well as her time spent caring for her family. Gladys passed away on September 4, 2005 at the St. Frances Home in Breckenridge, MN. She was 95. Gladys was preceded in death by her husband Frank on November 16, 1982; her parents Albert and Nellie; son Edward and daughter Marcella (Charles) Chase. She is survived by her son Alfred of Wheaton, MN; daughters Elvira Branstner of Nevada, Zelta (Bob) Koenig of North Dakota, Beverly Sundvall and Darlene Hauschild both of Minnesota and Ida Mae Lasick of California; 23 grandchildren, 30 + great-grandchildren and 8+ great-great? grandchildren. Honorary pallbearers were Gladys? grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Pallbearers were Jayson Wayne Sundvall, Joseph Michael Thomasson, Bryan Dean Hauschild, Stanley Alan Hauschild, Bob Davis, Ross A. Doerr, Douglas Lane Hauschild and Jeff Sundvall. Interment was in the Oak Valley Cemetery in Oak Valley Township.