“ I will miss Aunt Helen, she was always such a loving person. I always knew if we stopped in to visit her, you could never leave without having coffee and a little something with your coffee. Well, the little something ended up a big meal. It was always so yummy. We had alot of fun card games at Aunt Helens'.
God Bless you John and Jim and your families, remember Helen is with our wonderful Saviour Jesus.
Love you all!
Sandy

“ Helen and Glen were the kindest people I have ever known. They were very good to the older folks and young alike. And they passed that on to their kids.
They took me in to their family for a few summers after my dad (Happy) died and I hope they knew how much that ment to me.
Helen made the BEST chocolate chip cookies and she was the only person in the whole world that called me "Chuckie". I will miss her.
I'm sure God will be as kind to her as she was to us.

“ Helen was always so thankful for anything we did for her. When we would help her stand she would always say "Up with the old lady" At the St.Patricks day party the group of ladies was having a conversation and Helen says "I think they drank too much green beer" and everybody laughed. I always told Helen she has the most beautiful eyes. I will miss her and love her always!
