“ My Mom, Elsie Wutzke called the other night and let me know that Aunt Hilda passed away. I am very sorry for your loss. The last time I saw her was at one of the Denhoff/Goodrich reunions. It had been so long, I don't think she even recognized me until I introduced myself.

I remember the day Aunt Hilda and Uncle Gilbert got married at the Denhoff Lutheran Church. I must have been about 6 or 7 years old. It was the first wedding I ever remember attending. Aunt Hilda was a beautiful bride in her wedding dress.

*Aunt Agnes has kept me posted on what the family has been doing all these years. May the Lord be with you during this time of sorrow.
