“ My family and I were so incredibly grateful and proud to have known Jim and his family for over four decades. To say that my family loved Jim would be nothing more than an understatement, Jim was not only my boss while in the military, but a respected and admired role model, mentor, father figure and surrogate grandfather to our own children. To say we all are going to miss him would be even a greater understatement. There are not enough words to express his influences on everyone he touched in life.. ... I only know the bright sunshine will cast a much dimmer light upon this world, with the loss of the shining star of a human being... Jim Rest In Peace with “Deli” and Brad..., knowing we will watch over your family, until we meet again.
