

Howard Boylan

February 26, 1931 - December 5, 2004

Howard LeRoy Joseph Boylan was born to his parents George T. and Anna Christine (Auel) Boylan on February 26, 1931 on the family farm in Otter Tail County. He passed away on Sunday afternoon at the Abbott-Northwestern Hospital in Minneapolis. Howard was united in marriage to Darlene Mae Oltman on April 27, 1950 in the St. John parsonage in Wadena. Howard and Darlene made their home in Leaf River Township where he farmed with his brother Warren for many years. He also worked for the Wool Growers, the Co-op Station, Uselman's Implement and most recently for Aldrich Tractor. Howard enjoyed spending time with his family, hunting - especially deer hunting, and watching boxing matches. Howard was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his wife Darlene; daughters Deanna Kay (Carlos) Lozano of Greenville, SC, Debra Jean (Rodney) Mursu of New York Mills, Jacqueline Genise (Calvin) Smith of Friendswood, TX; sons Gary Howard (Kitty) of Ham Lake, MN and Steven Warren (Tracy) of Spring Lake Park, MN; 16 grandchildren & 10 great-grandchildren; brother Warren of Wadena and his sister Evelyn Dalen of Verndale. Burial will take place in the Wadena Cemetery following the services.

“ We had known Howard since we were all neighborhood kids.

He was a friendly and caring man. We were sorry to learn of his death.

May God give Darlene and the family comfort.

We are sorry we could not attend his service. Don is in the middle of radiation treatments.

Don and Howard were only 6 days difference in age.
