My Grandpa Howard was a very nice, kind and genourse person, he lived his life to the fullest, and it was very hard to let go of him. I rember days where we had many laughs and many tears, When we would listen to old songs he would start crying and say " They are pretty good." wich usely ment, he loved them. I rember his favorite song as being, ' The Yellow Rose of Texas'. I rember his 50th aniversy to his wife that he loved ohh so dearly, That day he was the happiest man you could meet, Everyone who meet him LOVED him, and he is missed greatly.
