

Isabelle Repasky

July 24, 1919 - October 31, 2011

Isabelle Marie Geiser Repasky, 92, of Verndale, MN passed away October 31, 2011, at Hennepin County Medical Center in Minneapolis. Isabelle was born to Henry and Mary (Rohr) Geiser on July 24, 1919 of Bluffton, MN. She married Michael Repasky of Sebeka on November 23, 1939. They bought a small farm in Verndale where she lived her entire life except for a few years in Chicago. Isabelle was a graduate of Art Instruction School of Minneapolis. She had planned to pursue a career in advertising but World War II came along and ended those plans. One of her last comments was, "I so love my little farm!" Isabelle is survived by her son Terrence "Terry" Repasky of Verndale; daughter Priscilla Repasky of Minneapolis; special sister-in-law Darlene Geiser and nephew Steve Geiser of AZ; and niece Delores Johnson of Minneapolis. She was preceded in death by her husband on December 28, 1984; and her parents Henry and Mary; sister Mildred Olson; brothers Bill, Len and Cliff; and her two special dogs, Brownie and Old Dog. Isabelle loved the simple things in life, especially her family, friends and her farm, her dogs, cows and chickens. She loved Jesus, her church and her rosary. Her life was so special. Her life was love of all God made. Rest in peace Sweet Lady, for Jesus and all who have known you for 92 years love you. May we all meet you again in Paradise with the Lord. The Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated on Saturday, November 5, 2011 at 11:00 a.m. at St. Frederick's Catholic Church in Verndale, with Father Arlie Sowada as celebrant. Honorary pallbearers were her childhood playmate Agnes Winkels, Joni Dailey and Judy Schultz. Active pallbearers were Gary VanDam, Bently Conn, Joe Perish, Jim Derby, Orville Albin and Terry Repasky. Burial was in St. Frederick's Catholic Cemetery in Verndale.

Tribute Wall

LS

“ Our deepest sympathies to the family and friends of Isabelle. She was a Grand Lady!

Len Siegler, Sally Schaffhausen - October 31, 2011 at 12:00 AM

S(

“ Thinking of you all and praying for peace and comfort during this time of loss in your family. God bless you.

Shirley (Horstmann)Brose - October 31, 2011 at 12:00 AM