“ I was sorry to hear about Jackie's passing. My mother use to babysit for the kids when they were small. Even though we all grew up & moved on the girls remained a happy memory from childhood. My heart goes out to both Vicki & Mary Jo on the loss of their sister.

“ My deepest sympathy to all of you with the loss of Jackie. I was not aware she was battling cancer all these years. She was a beautiful, sweet person whom everyone loved. She will be missed greatly. I'll always remember seeing her and the family out at the 160 at deer hunting time with her dad Don, husband John and all the rest of the gang back then. Lots of good memories of her and years gone by. My prayers to all of you. Jane Hieb

“ I remember Jackie and all the Schmiths as the kind neighbors of my parents, Joe and Gladys Thompson in Wadena in the late 70's and in the 80's. My sincere condolences to Jackie's family, and to Vicki and Mary Jo, too.
