At the age of 23, James passed away on September 24, 2023, near Aitkin, MN.

James was born on June 8, 2000, in Penza, Russia. He and his twin brother were adopted by Brenda (Bakken) Follmer in 2002 and were brought to the United States to live with their new family in Minnesota. James graduated from Bertha-Hewitt High School where he enjoyed sports, especially track and field. He continued his education and proudly attained an AAS degree from Lake Superior College in Duluth to become a registered respiratory therapist. James was employed at St. Mary's Medical Center in Duluth. Free time found him using his talents playing guitar and drawing. He enjoyed playing video games, reading and exercising. Outdoors, James observed animals, went hunting, and worked on the farm with his family and friends.

Preceding James in death were his great-grandparents. Deeply loved, James is survived by his mother, Brenda Follmer of Bertha; brother, Matthew Follmer of Bemidji and twin brother, Luke Follmer of St. Cloud; grandparents, Bruce and Frances Bakken of Bertha; along with many aunts, uncles, cousins, friends and co-workers.

Urn bearers will be Cory James Johnson and Jason Williams

Burial will be in Moran Germania Cemetery, rural Staples, MN.
