“ Jim was one of the most humble men I have ever had the pleasure of meeting. In 1990 I was recuperating from a surgery that gave me a shot to keep my eyesight while in a hospital in Fargo. Jim came to my room there and said some prayers with me, his kindness to me and others I'm sure was not something he had to do, but thought nothing of bringing his faith to anyone who needed it. This world was better with him in it, God blessed this world with Jim, heaven is welcoming a great man.

“ A Farmer once sat upon this tractor seat,
Tilling fields and raking wheat,
To feed family, friends, strangers too,
Reminding himself what hard work can do.
He raised his kids, fed his wife,
Giving thanks to God for a simple life.
Now he's in heaven looking down,
Praying for all the farmers still plowing their ground.
God Bless you Jimmy. Hardworking and generous farmer.
