“ Jane touched the hearts and lives of many who never knew her, including mine. Her struggle is over now and she has no more pain. May you, her family, find comfort in knowing that she is now with our Lord - fully restored and as beautiful as ever - living happy and free in eternity, where one day you will once again be united.

“ Dear Family of Jane

Words can not express how sorry we are to hear about little Jane. She fought so very hard, but Jesus was ready for her to come home. There she will have no more ugly pain and suffering. She is sitting in the arms of our loving Lord Jesus at peace. May you rely on God to help you through this most difficult time in your lives.

I can't imagine the pain you feel. Cancer is such a horrible thing. I have had losses in my family due to that dreadful thing.

God Bless you and we will keep you in our prayers for healing.

“ I haven't meet your family but my heart goes out to you. My youngest son died 12 years ago on the 6th suddenly. I know no words can help but just wanted to say that you have our prayers and that your family is my thoughts. From what I read you had a beautiful daughter and she will always make you smile when you think of her. Take comfort in God.

“ David,
It was only this weekend I learned of Jane's passing and your connection. I can't imagine the sadness you and your family are currently going through. As a father with two step daughters and many nieces and nephews on both sides, I know how I would feel to lose one of them. My heart goes out to you and your family and we are praying for you find the strength needed at this time and the days to come.
