“ Dear Grandma,

*I love you so much and I know I always teased everyone that I was your favorite but you loved each and everyone of us. I will miss our long talks over my grapenuts. All the advice and love that came with it. All of your smiles and winks. But most of all I will miss your hugs so warm and kind. The hugs always reminded me everything would be all right. That the world no matter how ugly My Grandma could make it go away and make it a bright sunny day. You taught me so many things.. the love you shared with grandpa gives me something to strive for everyday. How to love you kids with more than a heart can hold. You taught me how to cook. You taught me not fear. Grandma I am so happy you are at peace and our holding Grandpa's hand you waited a long time to do that. I know it is where you wanted to be. You told me that day as I was singing to you I was knew what to say to make you feel better... Im at a loss now.. You told me how much you loved me and that I was not to forget.. I know you telling me all the things we talked about that day to prepare me.. I was not.. lam trying Grandma .. The only thing giving me peace is knowing I have 2 angels now protecting my family. Thank you My Grandma for all you are to me and will continue to be. I was the lucky one to have you so near all of my life... I LOVE YOU MY GRANDMA! Love Your Favorite... (wink)Melony
PS Tell Grandpa I love him and miss him and give him and big hug!*
