

Jim Holweg

May 12, 1928 - November 22, 2004

James Carl Holweg was born to his parents Carl & Amanda Holweg on May 12, 1928 in Lisbon, North Dakota. He passed away at his home on Monday, November 22nd. Jim was united in marriage to Ann Boehnke while serving in the US Army in Germany. Jim and Ann have made their home in Wadena for the past 47 years. Since that time he has owned and operated Jim's Body Shop. Jim was an active member of the Christian & Missionary Alliance Church. There he served as a church board member, trustee and on the building committee for many years. He enjoyed helping others in need with his towing service and many other ways. He was a very proud and devoted grandpa. Jim was generous, hard working and a talented man. He shared his many talents by playing guitar and mandolin, his carpentry and mechanical skills. Jim was a strong Christian man. Jim was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his wife Ann; sons Jim Jr. (Cory) and Mark (Joan) both of Wadena; daughter Eleanor (Roger) Loyson of Bemidji; grandchildren TyAnn Jackson, Tyler, Chayce, Matthew, Brooke & Jerni Holweg; great-grandchildren Zachary & Hunter Jackson; brothers Vernon, Donald & Marvin; sisters Lucy & Ruth Carblom and JoAnn Shore. Burial with full military honors by the Elmer Goche Post 3922 Veterans of Foreign Wars will take place in the Wadena Cemetery following the services.
