“ So sorry to learn of Judy's passing. She sure had a long battle with cancer. It was 10 years since my father passed from cancer just this year, and if I recall, it seemed like it wasn't too long after that when Troy told me his mom was diagnosed too- I am not exactly sure. It's a blessing to know, that while I am sure it wasn't easy fighting the battle of cancer, she appreciated the extra years she got to spend with her family, children and grandchildren. Those are special times...Let THOSE memories warm your heart in the years to come. God Bless you all- take care :)
