Surrounded by her family, Karen passed away on February 14, 2013, at the age of 70 years, at her home in rural Verndale, under the gentle care of Legacy Hospice after a long battle with cancer.

Karen was born on August 31, 1942 in Morris, Minnesota to Carl and Margaret Killian.

She was united in marriage with Albert Yungbauer at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Staples on April 26, 1962.

Karen's greatest loves were her grandchildren and family. She loved gardening, 4-wheeling, fishing, shopping, and listening to her family play and sing. She taught religious education until 2009 and was a member of the Christian Mothers. Karen worked hard at everything and was never heard to complain.

She was preceded in death by her parents Carl and Margaret Killian; son Albert Anthony; and brothers Sam and Dewey Killian.

She is survived by her husband of 50 years, Albert Yungbauer; sons, Albert Robert (Toui) Yungbauer, Joseph (Karen) Yungbauer, and Daniel (Marilyn) Yungbauer; daughters Annette (Tim) Kehn, Wannetta (Ron) Meyers, Diane (Tom) Heath, Lorraine (Francis) Lajeunesse, and Mary Yungbauer; 29 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren; brothers Charlie Killian, Elmer Killian, and Keith Greer; and sister, Sandra Enyart.

Pallbearers will be Amalia Yungbauer, Karen Yungbauer, Karen Kehn, Mark Kehn, Matt Kehn, and Rick Heath.

“ Karen and Al were like second parents for me. I was the child that George (Diane) have over for a night during school that would end up staying more than a night. It was funny that Uncle John was my cousin.

Your family was a blessing to my brother and I. Jr got to hang with Joe and me and Diane. It was a blessing to see all the family in May of this year. I remember Karen and Diane taking me home and her getting a stash of Brach candies and introduced me to her favorite Maple flavor YUMMY. She was always fair. And loved music.

I will miss you Karen

“ *Al and Family,
Karen was a gift to the residents at Emerson and I considered her to be a friend . She always took such good care of me. Making sure I always had fresh coffee. I will never forget the days she made caramel rolls (On those days there was always fried bread for lunch). Prayers for all of you. Cindy Lemke*
