“Kathey was one of a kind, what you saw was what you got. She wasn't about frills and ruffles, but a real genuine, caring person. She excepted everyone for who they where and never judged them, she never turned her back on any one or thought they were less then her.

She was a determined person and never let lifes problems get her down, but just plowed on through without complaining. i will miss her huge, but i know there is one more bright star in the sky tonight, how lucky I was to have been able to call her Friend.I will keep a place in my heart for her until we meet up again.
