

Kevin Crosgrove

February 28, 1959 - June 2, 2011

Kevin Crosgrove was born to Roger and Virginia (Fah) Crosgrove on February 28, 1959 in Minneapolis, MN. He died on June 2, 2011, at the age of 52, at Tri-County Hospital in Wadena. Kevin attended Wadena Public School and graduated with the Class of 1977. He was a member of the Boy Scouts, and was interested in camping, antique classic cars, snowmobiling, hunting, fishing, photography, along with being an avid Vikings football fan. He also enjoyed Elvis Presley music, collecting many items of Elvis memorabilia. Kevin was preceded in death by his father Roger and brother Michael. He is survived by his loving mother Virginia; sisters Kelly Sullivan of Coon Rapids and Caroline Rogers of Bemidji; niece Amanda Frischmon of Ham Lake; nephews Marc Sullivan of East Bethel and Anthony Russo of Bemidji; and by his extended family and friends at the Elders Home in New York Mills, the Wadena Ambulance Service, and Tri-County Hospital. The Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at 1:00 p.m. on June 6, 2011, at St. Ann's Catholic Church in Wadena, with Father Donald Wagner as celebrant. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery in Wadena.

“ I want to pay my condolences to your family. Losing a member of your family is a very hard thing to go through and I just want you to know that I really feel for your family. May your happy memories of your brother and son be with you to help you through this time of sorrow.

With deepest sympathy,

Beverly Warren

“ *Kevin was the sweetest guy. When we would meet at church or at events he would always ask about my daughter, Kris, one of his classmates.
I remember when he showed me his camera that was mounted in a special way on his wheelchair.
Virginia, you and Roger were such good parents. I am sorry that Kevin had quite a struggle getting through life, but he always had a smile when I saw him. I will remember him fondly.
