“ My brother Larry was a loving man that had a laugh and personality that could just make you smile. Us brothers were not all and all that close but none the less brothers. He meant the world to me, as do my other siblings. I never got the chance to fully mend the fences with him and that will always be my biggest regret. Life is to short to hold grudges, I wish I could have one more day with him! I will never forget his personality or his love he had for all of his family. I remember him always being there for me when I was down, I only wish I could return the favor. I love you Larry and miss you more than you ever knew. We all loved you!

“ Uncle Larry was an amazing father, brother, uncle, husband, and friend. He always helped others with their problems by always knowing the perfect things to say to make everything okay. He would always make me laugh and smile. I remember when him and I would sit in his room while Bryan was at work and he would listen to me vent or even just ramble on and on about nothing. He would tell me about his kids, mostly about how his beautiful daughter, Kaylee, and I would be great friends and how much he loved her and all his kids. I will never forget you Uncle Larry. You're definitely still my "Uncle Homie Spice of Skills Biscuits and Gravy, Dawg" and I love you!

“ Wo very sorry for you all. We were so stunned, as you all were. James always loved being around your family. Corbin and your family have been true friends since we moved here from Oregon. We are sorry that you moved far away from us. Once again, so very sorry for this loss.
