“ Lester was a loving husband, father to our children, and to our grandchildren. When we were married Lester was willing to visit my relatives as well as his own, including a yearly gathering on my side of the family. He never failed to be by my side when each child was born,

Camping and traveling with the family was also enjoyable and memorable.

Lester always made it a priority to attend church and church related activities with us as a family. Lester was a blessing to our family as well as to many others. He is deeply missed. Beryl

“ Lester was the kind of brother every little girl needs to mature through childhood into adulthood. I appreciate the times he helped me with problems; no matter how small they seemed. When I fell, he was always the first one to pick me up. Lester's lifelong love for GOD, family and friends is appreciated by everyone who truly knew him. His values and trust were implicit. Sister, Lois

"Lester was the one who made me feel at home in Eagle Bend. I always looked forward to his Sunday greeting: "Did you hear the birds this morning?" and "How is that lawn mowing going?" Always happy and content with God's gifts. Phil Holum
