

Loretta Imdieke

April 13, 1920 - December 30, 2006

Loretta Rose Imdieke, age 86 of Wadena, passed away on Saturday, December 30th at the Fair Oaks Lodge where she has resided for the past three years. Loretta was born to her parents Joseph & Margaret (Brang) Imdieke in Bluffton on April 13, 1920. She attended school completing the 8th grade. For many years she did housework for different families in the community. As her parents aged she then tended to their needs. She enjoyed her time spent in the garden working with her flowers and her houseplants. She also did needlework. Loretta was a member of St. Ann's Catholic Church and the VFW Women's Auxiliary. Loretta was preceded in death by her parents and her brothers Herman, Anton, Bernard, John, Joseph Jr., Alphonse & Clarence. She is survived by her sister Alma Imdieke and many nieces and nephews. The Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Thursday, January 4th in the St. Ann's Catholic Church in Wadena with Fr. Donald Wagner the celebrant. Pallbearers will be her nephews Alan Imdieke, Larry Imdieke, Duane Imdieke, Dennis Imdieke, Darryl Dykhoff and Alan Eiswald. Burial next to her family will take place in the Calvary Cemetery in Wadena.

Tribute Wall

GI

“ we will always miss her ready smile and joking manner. she was a great aunt and a terrific godmother!

we will miss you, but always have great memories of our time together love,

marcia & gary

gary l. imdieke - December 30, 2006 at 12:00 AM