The Day God Called You Home

*God looked around his Garden and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon his earth and saw your loving face.*

*He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.
His Garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering, he knew you were in pain.
And knew that you would never get well on earth again.
He saw your path was difficult, he closed you tired eyes,
He whispered to you "Peace be Thine" and gave you wings to fly.
When we saw you sleeping so calm and free of pain,
We would not wish you back to earth to suffer once again.
You've left us precious memories, your love will be our guide,
You live on through your children, you're always by our side.
It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you on the day God called you home.*

I miss you great nana and I will love you forever. Thought we never met I will always appreciate the time we took together to laugh and talk about anything over the phone you will be greatly missed.

“ This post is not only for my beautiful Aunt Lucile but for the entire family and even all of my relatives in the midwest. It is such a blessing to feel like part of all of your families there and especially Uncle Ron and Aunt Lucille's. I can honestly say that the very best times of my life were spent in Deer Creek MN. My uncle and aunt took in this city kid from California and made him feel like one of their own. To this day, I can precisely picture every part of that house and farm. My aunt and uncle were two of God's most wonderful people and they are painfully missed. But I know their spirits live on in their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. I am so glad that my family had the chance to meet them, know them and be with them on our trip to Minnesota a few years ago. I love you and miss you Aunt Lucille.
