

Malcolm Powell

May 18, 2001 - November 26, 2022

The open house celebrating the life of Malcolm Powell of Eagle Bend will be held on Friday, December 2, beginning at 5:30 p.m. with a Time of Remembrance at 7:00 p.m. at the Schuller Family Funeral Homes & Cremation Services' Domian-Anderson Chapel in Bertha.

On November 26, 2022, Malcolm, age 21, unexpectedly passed away of natural causes at his home in Eagle Bend, MN.

Malcolm Jermal Powell was born to Howard Powell and Athena Dotson on May 18, 2001, at Royal Oak, MI. A year and a half later his father Darell Morris came into his life to help raise a beautiful young man. Malcolm attended and graduated from Bertha-Hewitt school.

Known to have a personality like his mother, Malcolm had been instilled with a knack for making people smile and laugh. Like most young men his age, he enjoyed food, video games and Anime series as well as reading Anime books. He loved to listen to and write music, in addition to dancing.

Memories of Malcolm will be forever cherished and loved by his mother, Athena and father, Darrell of Eagle Bend; step-mom, Deanna Wilson; brothers: Cameron Powell, Michael Browning, Darrell Morris, Jr, Dominic Morris and Jarah Morris; sisters: Jessica Dominique and Monica Powell-Tyus; grandmothers, Linda Somogyi and Mary Powell; along with a host of aunts, uncles, family members and friends who cared for him deeply.

Rest in peace my "Little Mini-Me" until we see each other again. We love you, Mom, Dad and Cameron.

What a loving friendly person. I remember him in so many of the plays with Ashley. We always enjoyed them. He was such a sweet guy. I remember giving him a hug at Ashley's graduation party. That was the last time I saw him. The world will miss this wonderful young man.

“ I will miss you dearly Malcom you definitely brightened my day when you came in, I miss the mini singing sessions we had in the bakery throughout our shifts, and the sarcasm we had some days made me laugh so hard I was almost crying! I will miss you so much buddy. 😭

“ *Malcolm will be missed here at Abby's Bakery.
He had a larger than life smile, and always said good morning to all.
I will miss seeing his smile, his headbands, and his sassiness (he was just like his momma, or so he told us all the time!).
We will miss you Malcolm!
Prayers of healing for you all.*

“ Our family is blessed to have known Malcolm. Beyond blessed.

Malcolm made our hearts smile. He and my son, Nolan, were college roommates Nolan's second year. About a month before school started, Nolan got a phone call from someone he'd never met excited about life and its next chapter. Malcolm had moved in before Nolan, and when we moved Nolan in, his bright cheery smile greeted us at the door. He was beyond enthusiastic and full of optimism about the future. He was animated, full of life and character, a little sassy (which I love) and kind. His spirit was beautiful. He was beautiful.

He and Nolan grew their friendship, and the friend circle grew. Malcolm was at the heart of the circle. He'll always be in the heart of the circle.

Rest in peace Malcolm. We'll continue to drink and spill the tea. ❤️

“ Malcom is one of the nicest people I’ve ever met. When I think of Malcom I think of play practice that couldn’t have been more fun, I think extracurricular activities with the school that were only made better because he was there. I think of helping my sister Paige get ready to go to prom with him and how she would call him “malk-E”. I also think of dancing with him at Paige’s wedding. He truly lit up every room he walked into. He helped bring smiles to so many of our faces on the hardest days. He truly was one of a kind. ”

“ Milky, I am so grateful I got to know you and all your weirdness❤️ When I think of you I think of our time in American History and watching funny moments of Cardi B and MGK and how you managed to perfect Cardi’s iconic “okuurr”... I think of the time we were at the park in Hewitt and the tree that fell and scared us by how loud it was. I think of how you were the go-to type person, you sure knew how to cheer a girl up. I think of your humor and how we were always laughing. You will always hold a special place in my heart and I will never forget our friendship❤️ Thank you for being someone I could always count on to put a smile on my face. Stay wild my friend... all my love - Hails ❤️
