“ Saw Margaret a few weeks ago when I took her paper out to her. She was always so nice to talk to and always had a smile on her face. Her folks sold their farm to my folks when we moved here in Feb. of 1952.. God picked a good day to take her home, Mothers Day.

“ When I think of Margaret I think of many things. She was my husband's Aunt,my Father-in-law only sister, a hard worker, loved her family and my but such a very good cook. I surely am gonna miss seeing Margaret and Carol in stores in Wadena when we would meet-talk awhile-have a laugh- Lost a good lady the day Margaret died. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. A quote from a poem I like ; don't say good-bye, I would never leave you, don't say good-bye,I am somewhere greater, it's not good-bye, But see you later.
