“ I haven't seen Marion in at least 20 years but that still doesn't change the fact that she was such a nice lady who wouldn't say a cross word about anybody.

Duane and siblings, you have my sincere condolences during your time of sorrow, with hope that time heals quickly. Don't worry, you know shes' chirping at Bernard big time about now.

“ Ginger, Vivian and Patty and the rest of the family. My deepest sympathy on the loss of your mother. I remember her as a loving and caring lady and although we moved when I was young, she always had time to visit when I did see her. The last time I saw her was at my mothers vistation and I remember how excited I was that she would come and I can still feel that big hug we shared at that moment. I will treasure that always. Patty, I won't forget the nice things you had to say about Larry either, and I'm sure they are visiting in heaven today. Be comforted to know that God had a place prepared for her. A place of peace. That doesn't fill the emptiness you feel now though, but it helps. God bless all of you.
